How It Works: SAT®/ACT® Essentials

Reach your target score with free resources from Tutor.com and The Princeton Review®

Preparing for the SAT or ACT? Our self-paced resources, created by a team of test-prep experts, are available to you free from Tutor.com!

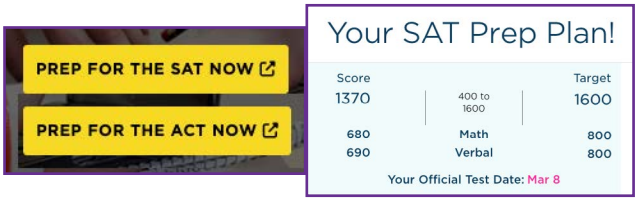

1 Get started

Log in to your Tutor.com account and click "Prep for the SAT/ ACT" under "Test Prep and Self-Study"

2 Set your goals and targets

Set your target test date and your target scores on the home page. This will help you stay on track and moving toward your goal.

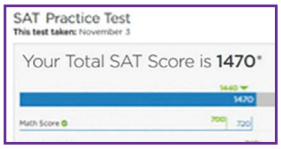

3 Take practice tests

Click on the TESTS tab to take a full-length practice test on paper or online. Use a timer like on the real test, or take it untimed to get a feel for what to expect. You can retake the test as many times as you'd like and track your progress over time.

4 Get your score report

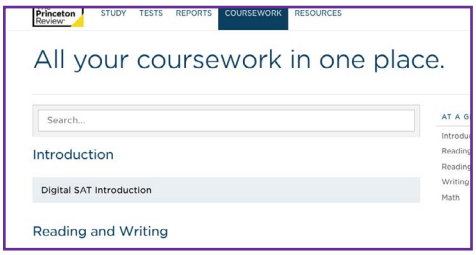

Once you've taken a practice test, you can view your full score report. You'll be able to see your overall score as well as what you scored for each section.

Tutors are available on demand if you need help understanding a problem. Just click on Connect with a Tutor on the start page.

5 Continue your practice with additional drills and lessons

Click on the COURSEWORK tab to find all our video lessons and practice drills for each core concept covered on the test.

6 Explore Other Resources

If you need help like writing strong admissions essays, navigating the college application process, or applying for financial aid and filling out the FAFSA®, you can get expert advice by visiting the RESOURCES tab.

On the road to college, we are with you every step of the way.

November 3, 2026

SAT® and AP® are trademarks registered by the College Board, which is not affiliated with, and does not endorse, this product. All tests are registered trademarks of their respective owners. None of the trademark holders is affiliated with The Princeton Review or this product. FAFSA® is a registered trademark of the U.S. Department of Education. The Princeton Review is not affiliated with Princeton University.