

Getting to know the tutor.com™ A Service of The Princeton Review Client Portal

Join the Tutor.com team to learn more about your access to Tutor.com usage data through the Client Portal.

In Session 1, “Here’s what, so what?”, you’ll learn the basics of the Client Portal: how to access the portal, read your dashboard, and run and export usage reports on demand. In Session 2, “Now What?”, you’ll learn to notice usage patterns and how best to use the data to support students.
