Gone Fishing

"It's the perfect day to catch some fish," said Christopher.

Christopher's dad was taking Christopher and his friend Arturo to the lake. The sun was shining, and the temperature was 80 degrees. There weren't many more days left before school started. Christopher and Arturo wanted to make sure they spent every last minute having fun.

Arturo had never been fishing before. "How do you catch them?" asked Arturo.

"I put a worm on the hook. Then, I put my fishing pole in the lake. I keep it very still, and the fish bites it!" said Christopher.

"What do you do with them?" Arturo asked.

"I put them in a bucket of water. Then I clean them. After that my dad cooks them on the grill. Fish tastes great!" Christopher answered.

Right as Christopher said that, he felt a tug on his line, and he pulled up a big fish. Then, Arturo's line got tight.

"Oh, my!" Arturo said. "I think I caught one, too!" "Pull it up," Christopher said. "Be careful."
